CUSTODIANSHIP AGREEMENT FORM

Procure Global Initiative distribute products throughout the world on the basis of custodianship where the host of the property (Procure) allows usage of the product for its benefit through the host or custodian.

A. Custodianship

1. You will be the only custodian of the product given.
2. You will use the product for the reasons agreed upon at the point of collection or “Purpose”.
3. Any damage, loss or effect that interferes the “Purpose” of the product will be reported to the General Secretary of Procure via info@procare-global.org
4. This contract is open for termination either by Procure or the custodian.

B. Usage

1. You may use the product for your benefit solely and not others as long as it does not void the contract or interferes with terms of custodianship in “A” above, or potentially shortens its lifespan.
2. You may lease it to a third party to help promote Procure given they can confirm its safety every 36 hours and return it to the primary custodian within four days. Reissue may restart thereafter.
3. You may suggest better usage of the product through email in “A.3” above.
4. Procure will inform the custodian on its usage via a fitting communication.
